

Spoken For

Rex Allchurch, Jim Elliott, Chris DuPre

Key of A
75 BPM

F#m                    D    A E
You're bigger than anything I could ever face
F#m                    D            A E
These rolling hills turn to planes at your very word
F#m                    D                    E
These storms can rage I'm not afraid

Chorus:

A                    D                    F#m E            D
I'm so sure You love me, I am spoken for
A                    D                    F#m E            D
No weapon against me has any power anymore

Cos I am spoken for

Verse 2:

I'll fix my eyes heaven side, Change my point of view
To focusing on what you say, Cos what you say is true
These days will fade, your love will stay

Bridge:

A                                    D/A A                                    D/A
There's no doubt in my mind, That come the end of time
A                                    D/A A                                    F#m E/G#
I'll lift my eyes and find, Your arms are open wide
